

Getting on the Bus

Central Athens is a fixed-stop zone: drivers will only stop at marked bus stops, so please wait for the bus at a sign or shelter. See maps for stop locations.

Each bus has a ramp or lift to provide access to passengers with disabilities; seating includes positions for mobility devices and oxygen tanks.

During Your Trip

Have your exact fare or pass ready as you board the bus. Fares go in the top of the glass farebox; drivers do not carry change. After paying, move promptly to a seat or hold onto a grab rail.

Front row seats are reserved for our elderly, disabled, or pregnant passengers; please move to another seat or stand to allow them to be seated.

Leaving the Bus

Signal that your stop is near by telling the driver, or by pulling the gold cord by the window; the "stop requested" sign will light. Wait until the bus is fully stopped to exit.

Exit the bus at any bus stop or stop sign in fixed-stop zones. In flag zones you may exit at any safe location. Leaving the bus while in a middle traffic lane is prohibited for passenger safety.

Rural Hail Zones

Outlying parts of our service area are flag (a.k.a "hail" zones.) In these zones you can wave to the bus anywhere on the line and the driver will stop for you to board at the nearest safe place.

Hail zones are marked on the map by a salmon-colored border. Far E State St, Columbus Rd, The Plains, Chauncey, Albany, & Nelsonville are flag zones.
