

Job Posting

TO: Public/In-House Listing

FROM: Julie Gladney, Health Programs Coordinator

DATE: October 1, 2026

RE: Southeast Ohio Foodbank, Community Health Specialist Position Openings

Hocking Athens Perry Community Action (HAPCAP) is looking for Community Health Specialists to work with our HAPCAP for Health team. As a member of our team, you will work to further health access, food security, and equity for our rural neighbors.

The Community Health Specialist will conduct case management in our Bringing Healthy Home (Maternal/Prenatal) and Food as Medicine programs, with a focus on Perry and Hocking counties. We are also seeking a Community Health Specialist onsite for the Sunset Shelter. The Community Health Specialist will meet with program participants on a regular basis, conducting home visits to deliver food and other materials. They will assess goals and assist with accessing resources and supportive services to meet health and social needs. They will also serve as a liaison between participants and healthcare professionals, to help address barriers to healthcare access.

Successful candidates will have the ability to work well with a wide range of staff, partners, neighbors, and vendors. Additionally, the candidate will need to establish and maintain good relationships with community-based organizations, social service agencies, healthcare providers, and managed care providers for referral of participants and care coordination.

A high school diploma or GED is required. Applicants must have a valid driver's license and reliable transportation. In addition, applicants must possess very good computer and organizational skills and have the ability to communicate with people of all socioeconomic backgrounds. A commitment to addressing the causes and conditions of poverty and hunger is essential. Current certification as a Community Health Worker in Ohio and one year of experience is required.

This position is part of HAPCAP's Community Health Worker career pathway. Candidates who are not yet fully qualified as a Community Health Worker may be eligible to apply for HAPCAP's Phase 1 or Phase 2 Community Health Worker Apprentice positions.

This is a full-time position within a dynamic, service-oriented work environment. The salary for this position starts at $37,500 annually and includes 100% health, dental, and vision coverage for the employee, a generous paid time off package, retirement plan with 6% employer matching, and periodic Cost of Living Adjustments (COLA).

To apply, please electronically submit a resume, agency application, and three references to Julie Gladney, Programs Coordinator, at julie.gladney@hapcap.org. Applications can be found at <https://hapcap.org/wp-content/uploads/2026/07/agency-application-08.2022.pdf>. For full consideration, applications will be accepted until October 12, 2026 or until the position has been filled.

HAPCAP is an Equal Opportunity Employer and provider of services.